

INSTRUCTIONS

- Cut out the entire image along outside edges — including flaps.

✂ Make cuts first. Use an X-Acto knife for precision.

- Fold paper on white dashed lines.

📏 Use a table with a 90 degree angle for more precise folds.

- Bring together. Use glue or tape to adhere the flaps to rear side of image for a nice, sturdy structure.

📏 Line up the edges before adhering.

📏 Adhere tabs to the inside of the model using small pieces of tape or glue. Follow the numbered sequence.

Rockefeller Memorial Chapel

Rockefeller Memorial Chapel, with its Interreligious Center, serves as the hub of spiritual life at the University of Chicago, offering diverse religious events and ceremonies on a daily basis, as well as regular interreligious gatherings. In addition, Rockefeller hosts major performing arts and academic events, and serves as the locus for University-wide gatherings and celebrations of many different kinds, including Convocations.
