

The background of the image consists of deep red, vertically pleated curtains. On the left side, there is a large, faint, vertical logo in a dark red color, which appears to be the 'UChicago' logo. The logo is partially obscured by the folds of the curtains. On the right side, the text 'UCHICAGOArts' is displayed in a white, bold, sans-serif font.

UCHICAGOArts

The Arts Come Alive at UChicago

Whether you major in the arts, philosophy, or molecular engineering, at UChicago you can take advantage of hundreds of artistic groups, activities, and events on campus regardless of your field of study. As a social outlet, cultural endeavor, or professional specialization, the arts here know no bounds.

Le Vorris and Vox Circus

The University of Chicago's student-led circus performs in Rockefeller Chapel on campus. Students from all backgrounds—artists, psychologists, computer scientists—showcase their talents in unique performances each quarter.

Diana H.
French

Mark S.
Computer Science

Antonia C.
Social Service Administration

Lucy L.
Music

Alessandra S.
Political Science

Edward M.
Visual Arts

Nicholas C.
Interdisciplinary Studies
In the Humanities

Violet W.
South Asian Languages
and Civilizations

With a strong tradition of cross-disciplinary practices mixed with intellectual curiosity and creative energy, the University fosters a bustling arts community. Students can pursue their artistic passions through majors and minors like:

- Architectural Studies
- Art History
- Cinema and Media Studies
- Creative Writing
- Music
- Theater and Performance Studies
- Visual Arts

Pictured: The Logan Cabaret series offers a platform for individual artists and groups to take the stage in the state-of-the-art Logan Center for the Arts.

Photo by Jason Smith

engage
with a robust arts curriculum

Whether you're a Cinema and Media Studies major or a physics student with a penchant for painting, you can pursue your artistic passion here through UChicago's incredible diversity of on-campus arts offerings:

- 60 student-run arts-related organizations
- 35+ theatrical productions staged by approximately 500 students annually
- More than 150 faculty members in the arts
- Dozens of world-class performances and exhibitions on campus at Court Theatre, the Smart Museum, and the Renaissance Society

Pictured: A student DJ at UChicago's student-run radio station, WHPK, broadcasting live across Chicago since 1968.

Photo by Jason Smith

play
with a community of artists

UChicago Careers in Journalism, Arts, and Media prepares students for a life in the arts after college. Open to students of all majors, this program provides internships, mentorships, and apprenticeships where students can work one-on-one with established artists and build their professional networks while still in the College. Past placements include:

- Paramount Pictures
- The Paris Review
- New York Philharmonic
- The New Republic
- WBEZ (Chicago Public Radio)
- Mark Morris Dance Group

Pictured: University Theater produces over 35 shows a year. Featured here is Proof, by Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright David Auburn, AB'91.

Photo by Jason Smith

advance
your career in the arts

where theory and practice converge

Our world-renowned arts faculty includes Pulitzer Prize winners and Guggenheim Fellows, composers of international acclaim, and contemporary visual artists who are making an imprint on the art world. They include:

- William Pope.L, acclaimed interdisciplinary artist and associate professor in the Department of Visual Arts
- Wu Hung, celebrated art historian and director of the Center for the Art of East Asia
- Theaster Gates, professor in the Department of Visual Arts and former director of Arts and Public Life

Pictured: Augusta Read Thomas, former composer-in-residence with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and current University Professor of Composition in the Department of Music and the College.

Photo by Jason Smith

collaborate
with a world-class faculty

Some of the greatest art in the world is created and housed in the city of Chicago, right at your fingertips. UChicago students have unprecedented access to this art through the Arts Pass, providing them with free and discounted visits to over 70 partner institutions, including:

- Art Institute of Chicago
- Museum of Contemporary Art
- Steppenwolf Theatre
- The Second City
- Lyric Opera
- Chicago Symphony Orchestra
- DuSable Museum of African American History
- National Museum of Mexican Art

Pictured: Color Jam, a public art installation by Jessica Stockholder, chair of UChicago's Department of Visual Arts, transformed a downtown Chicago intersection into an explosion of color.

Photo by Jason Smith

explore
a city of opportunities

The University of Chicago has launched the careers of a century of great artists in all fields. These alumni have transformed their fields in thought and practice, winning Pulitzers, Emmys, Oscars, and Tonys along the way. Here are just a few:

- Kurt Vonnegut, AM'71
Pulitzer Prize-winning author
- Katherine Dunham, PhB'36
dance pioneer
- Philip Glass, AB'56
groundbreaking composer
- Kimberly Peirce, AB'90 director of Boys Don't Cry and the remake of Carrie

Pictured: Balloon fashions designed by physics major Willie Chyr, AB'09, whose work has been featured in a major national ad campaign.

Photo by Lloyd DeGrane

succeed
alongside great alumni

Nexus of Creative Inquiry and Practice

The Reva and David Logan Center for the Arts is the multidisciplinary arts center at the University of Chicago. Designed by renowned architects Tod Williams and Billie Tsien, the building integrates classroom, studio, practice, performance, and exhibition spaces to create a dynamic, collaborative environment for arts and scholarship. It is a catalyst for creativity available to every undergraduate, regardless of his or her major.

LEVEL 10
DelGiorno Deck

LEVEL 9
Performance Penthouse

LEVEL 8
Terrace Seminar Room

LEVEL 7
Performance Lab for Dance

LEVEL 6
Visual Arts Classroom

LEVEL 5
Performance Lab for Theater

LEVEL 2
Screening Room

LEVEL 1
Exhibition Gallery
Performance Hall
Theater West (black box)
Theater East (fixed seat)

LOWER LEVEL
Digital Media Center
Music Practice Rooms

Spaces for All

With 11 stories, 184,000 square feet, and over 90 spaces for undergraduates to make and experience art, it's easy to find a space that's right for you. Visit arts.uchicago.edu to learn more about what's going on in the Logan Center right now!

Photo by Jason Smith

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO | Arts

College Admissions
1101 East 58th Street
Chicago, Illinois 60637

arts.uchicago.edu
collegeadmissions.uchicago.edu

facebook.com/uchicagoadmissions

twitter.com/viewchicago

youtube.com/uchicagoadmissions

uchicagoadmissions.tumblr.com

uchiadmissions

instagram.com/uchicagoadmissions

“Driven by the creative experimentation and intellectual fearlessness of our students, faculty, and professional organizations, the arts are central to the life of the University of Chicago.”

Larry Norman, Professor in Romance Languages and Literatures, Theater and Performance Studies, and the College