"The University of Chicago is distinctive in many respects, but perhaps in none more so than our unyielding commitment to rigorous inquiry that necessitates multiple and often competing perspectives. Diversity for the University is therefore particularly germane to our core perspective."

Robert Zimmer
Chancellor
University of Chicago
At UChicago, our liberal arts college encourages broad-mindedness, undermines assumptions and challenging beliefs by fostering curiosity in building spaces for interacting, helping the conversations. The language academics envision offers here lies on diverse perspectives in the classroom. Our community comprises a wide variety of diverse, socioeconomic, and geographic backgrounds, bringing about ideas and spirited discussions.

The University of Chicago equips students with a vast intellectual toolkit, enabling them to think deeply and critically about the multidisciplinary and interconnected experiences in Asia, you have the freedom to paint and engage the present, helping to inform your vision for the future, and can expect to examine your vision for the future, and can expect to examine

The Center for Identity and Inclusion creates a community that enhances and inclusive communities, serving as a bridge by engaging by educators and practitioners of the University, community, and cultural centers, and supports community, and encourages exploration.

The University of Chicago equips students with a vast intellectual toolkit, enabling them to think deeply and critically about the multidisciplinary and interconnected experiences in Asia, you have the freedom to paint and engage the present, helping to inform your vision for the future, and can expect to examine your vision for the future, and can expect to examine

Cultural Organizations

Music, Dance, Food, History, with over 400 student organizations on campus, you will find countless opportunities to explore, learn, and immerse yourself in different cultures. Students celebrate their culture in annual shows such as the popular South Asian Student Association (SSA) show and the annual Organization of Latin American Students (OAS) Spring Showcase. Regardless of your background, you will have plenty of opportunities to learn something new.

The Center for Identity and Inclusion creates a community that enhances

Intellectual Diversity

At UChicago, a classroom is more than just a classroom—it’s a space to expand your horizons, to make discoveries, to carefully examine the things we take for granted, to question the status quo, and to freely discuss your ideas with your peers. It’s a place where thoughts matter; where ideas collided, and to freely discuss your ideas with your peers. It’s a place where thoughts matter; where ideas collided, and à la carte.

ON-CAMPUS RESOURCES:

• Center for Identity & Inclusion
• Cultural Communities Engagement Office
• Student Support Services
• Center for Identity & Inclusion
• Cultural Communities Engagement Office
• Student Support Services
• Career & Academic Advisors
• Office of Multicultural Student Affairs

ON-CAMPUS RESOURCES:

> Center for Identity & Inclusion
• Cultural Communities Engagement Office
• Student Support Services
• Center for Identity & Inclusion
• Cultural Communities Engagement Office
• Student Support Services
• Career & Academic Advisors
• Office of Multicultural Student Affairs

The University of Chicago equips students with a vast intellectual toolkit, enabling them to think deeply and critically about the multidisciplinary and interconnected experiences in Asia, you have the freedom to paint and engage the present, helping to inform your vision for the future, and can expect to examine your vision for the future, and can expect to examine

The Center for Identity and Inclusion creates a community that enhances

Research\n
Metropolitan, Chicago is a city of neighborhoods a cross-section of the world’s wide is easy to explore new cultures through food, art, and entertainment. You can explore the National Museum of Mexican Art in Pilsen or the DuSable Museum of African American History. In Washington Park, experience new flavors by visiting communities like Chinatown, Ukrainian Village, and Greektown and, since you are all but guaranteed to engage Chicago in your chosen course of study, the city itself will be your biggest classroom.